

16 – 25 RAILCARD

1/3 off rail fares and so much more...

There's every reason to be happy if you're aged 16 to 25, because with this Railcard you'll enjoy 1/3 off rail fares when you go by train. You can also apply for one if you're a mature student in full time study, as long as you're eligible.

The Railcard costs just £30. So after three or four trips, the card will have paid for itself. And over a year, you could save an average of £189*.

Your 16-25 Railcard will save you 1/3 off a wide range of tickets .

Your Railcard doesn't just save you money on travel. It saves you money with our partners too – on days out, restaurants, hotels and more. Visit our Offers and Rewards area regularly to keep up to date on the great deals available

Minimum Fares and Time Restrictions

A £12 minimum fare applies for journeys starting between 04.30-09.59 Monday to Friday excluding Advance Fares. This minimum fare does not apply on public holidays or throughout July and August. For full details of minimum fares, please ask at your local staffed station and some National Rail-licensed Travel Agents.

If you travel regularly between 04:30 and 09:59 Monday to Friday, to work or your place of study for instance, a weekly or monthly Season ticket could be the best way for you to save money. Railcards do not give discounts on Season tickets.

Remember, not every ticket type is available for every journey that you might want to make, so it's always best to check before booking. And be sure to read the full terms and conditions for using your Railcard.

Get more for your money with a 3-year Railcard

If you're between 16 and 25, and you know you're going to be doing a lot of travelling over the next 3 years, why not buy a 3-year Railcard instead? It costs just £70, saving you £20 on the price of three 1-year Railcards. What's more you can get a 3-year 16-25 Railcard right up until the day before your 24th birthday.

* Average saving is based on the average savings made by 16-25 Railcard holders between March 2019 and February 2020, excluding price of Railcard.
